

Parents as Partners on the Special Education Team

These sessions will help parents learn about special education procedures and paperwork, and offer practical ideas on ways to become effective partners in their child's education. Sessions will be most helpful to parents who are new to the special education system as well as those who would like to become more active partners in the process.

Your Child's Evaluation for Special Education Services (ETR)

The session will walk through the evaluation process from planning to eligibility. We will discuss evaluation data and what it tells us about a child's educational needs. We will also discuss strategies for resolving differences between team members.

Fall Session: September 30, 2014
9:30 am—12:30 pm

Spring Session: March 10, 2015
9:30 am—12:30 pm

Your Child's Individualized Education Program (IEP)

This session will focus on developing a plan to address a child's educational and functional needs. We will discuss how a child's evaluations can help determine goals, the types of services the child needs, and the range of educational settings where special education services may be provided.

Fall Session: October 7, 2014
9:30 am—12:30 pm

Spring Session: March 17, 2015
